

REMARKS

In response to the Examiner's phone calls during the past few weeks, Applicants' representative has amended the current application, above. The computer code previously submitted on disk, February 10, 2004, is exactly the same as the computer code originally submitted on June 23, 2003. In the parent application, we twice submitted the same, identical computer code, but were required to change the file extensions from ".v" to ".txt." so that the files can be opened by a text editor. However, in all cases, the original computer code was not modified.

Respectfully submitted,
